Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director, Central Intelligence
Langley, Virginia 23665

Dear Admiral Turner;

As I come to an end of my full time employment as a member of the Senate Select Committee Staff, I want to tell you how much I have enjoyed working with your colleagues in the intelligence community. There are a few exceptions, to be sure, but on the whole I found the officers and analysts with whom I worked to be men and women of high character. I know Senator Garn shares this assessment.

At his suggestion, I am preparing an article on the intelligence community to be submitted to a mass circulation magazine. He wants me to show that we have placed some fairly burdensome demands on the various agencies in the last few years and that it may be time to "back off" a bit. I have spoken to [redacted] of OLC on this and he is willing to be of some help in providing some data.

STAT

Speaking of OLC, let me tell what a pleasure it has been to work with [redacted]. For the over two years I was on the staff he served my and Senator Garn's needs with courtesy, propriety, and promptness. He was always helpful, but never obtrusive---to the fullest extent consistent with agency policies he was open, frank, and candid.

I will be working as a consultant to the committee in the future and I look forward to continuing to play a small part in bringing about constructive, vigilant, and judicious oversight.

Sincerely,

Stan Taylor
